GERMANS LOSE TWO CRUISERS - REPORT 8000 KILLED

GERMAN LOSSES IN BELGIUM REPORTED AT ELEVEN THOUSAND

KAISER'S EFFORTS TO REACH FRENCH FRONTIER ARE FRUSTRATED

TWO REGIMENTS LOST

ANTI-GERMAN FEELING IN BELGIUM INCREASES AND GERMAN RESIDENTS ARRESTED.

BRITAIN SWEEPING SEAS

England's Navy Gathers In German Liners—Germany Reported to Have Repulsed Russians.

(Associated Press.)

Brussels, Belgium, Aug. 6.—The Gazette says that in yesterday's repulse of the Germans in the Liege district the German losses are estimated at 8,000; the Belgians' loss being much less.

3,500 AT VASE.

London, Aug. 6.—The Chronicle's Amsterdam correspondent says that 3,500 Germans were killed and wounded in the fighting at Vase, Belgium.

Stories of the great struggle yesterday between German and Belgian soldiers in the vicinity of Liege tell of terrible slaughtering among the Germans. The German losses will be from 4,000 to 5,000, and 17 of their machine guns were captured. The enemy retired all along the line.

SQUADRON WIPED OUT.

A squadron of Belgian lanciers was completely wiped out after killing 150 Uhlans.

AWAIT THE WOUNDED.

Brussels, Belgium, Aug. 6.—Anti-German feeling in Belgium is intense. Many German residents have been arrested on a charge of espionage. Thousands of women have enrolled as Red Cross nurses and are awaiting the arrival of the wounded from the battlefields. King Albert has handed over the palace to the Red Cross society to be used as a hospital. The queen will act as a nurse.

EXPECT REINFORCEMENTS.

London, Aug. 6.—The Chronicle's Amsterdam correspondent says that the German Crown Prince with 30,000 fresh troops are expected hourly before Liege, Belgium.

Washington, Aug. 6.—The United States government demanded that the German government immediately release the Americans detained there during army mobilization.

Washington, Aug. 6.—President Wilson ordered a censorship on all wireless messages within the jurisdiction of the United States—this by way of preserving the neutrality of the United States and preventing the relaying of code messages from the belligerents to their war vessels in the North Atlantic.

Holland, Aug. 6.—Germany has invaded Holland at Eijsden and Dutch troops are desperately trying to repel the invasion. It is reported also that another body of Germans has reached Tilburg, an important city and railroad point fifty miles inland from the Dutch-German frontier from which there is direct railroad communication with Brussels and Paris.

ZEPPELINS RULE EUROPE'S SKIES SAYS AIR EXPERT

SECRET SERVICE AGENT SAYS GERMAN AIRSHIPS SURPASS THOSE OF FRANCE.

PLAN TO WRECK LONDON

German War Department Has Plans for Aerial Attacks on London and Paris.

By "Espionage," in Chicago Tribune. (This article is written by a man in the secret service of a great world power. Under the guise of a professional aviator he has flown over every capital in Europe, making photographs with a secret camera attached to his machine for the war ministry archives of his government. As a designer and operator of aeroplanes he is known the world over. His article, therefore, deals particularly with the air equipment of the various European nations for war.)

Whatever the final outcome of the war, this is certain:

Germany is going to surprise the world by her mastery of the air.

For Germany and not France ranks first in war aviation. The ponderous dirigible, not the fleet aeroplane, is the most destructive machine that soars.

Ready to Attack London.

Germany stands ready to assail Paris, Warsaw, and even London by an attack from the air, and the odds are against the defenders.

While Frenchmen have been capturing the prizes in aerial contests, Germany has been far from idle. After experiments with every kind of engine that soars the air she has abandoned the newer, heavier than air creations for the dirigible of

MRS. WILSON IS NO BETTER

BULLETIN, 2:30 P. M. (Associated Press.)

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—Mrs. Wilson is being sustained by oxygen. She had two sinking spells this morning, and while conscious, is gradually growing weaker.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—Because of the grave condition of Mrs. Wilson the White House has been closed to visitors. Mrs. Wilson's condition, while very critical, was better this morning. She was conscious and patted the president on the arm, saying she had spent a good night. The chief cause of her critical condition is chronic kidney trouble.

Telegrams expressing sympathy for Mrs. Wilson are pouring in from all parts of the country, there being one from former President Roosevelt. The House has passed a resolution of sympathy.

KAISER MAD, DECLARES MATIN

Paris, Aug. 5.—The Matin in an editorial, says: "The German emperor must have suddenly become mad or he would doubtless have acted differently. Not content with attacking France and violating Luxemburg, he has tried to intimidate brave little Belgium. It is more than infamy, more than a crime against civilization and the rights of men. It is crazy. William is mad."

WAR MAP OF EUROPE, SHOWING STRENGTH OF ARMIES

The fighting strength of the principal European nations in time of war totals nearly 20,000,000. On one side, favoring Serbia, is the triple entente, consisting of England, Russia and France, and on the other side, supporting Austria, is the triple alliance—namely, Germany, Italy and Austria itself.

How a World War Came in a Flash

THE SPARK THAT KINDLED THE CONFLAGRATION. HOW THE WAR FLAME SPREAD.

JUNE 28—Francis Ferdinand, crown prince of Austria, and consort assassinated at Sarajevo Bosnia, by Serbian student.

JULY 23—Austria sends ultimatum to Serbia to suppress anti-Austrian agitation and permit Austrians to try Serbians implicated in assassination plot. Reply demanded in 48 hours.

JULY 24—Russia announces it "cannot remain indifferent" to Austria's demands, and requests an extension of time in which Serbia is to reply to Austria's ultimatum.

JULY 25—Austrian embassy leaves Belgrade. Serbia orders mobilization of army. Austrian troops move to Serb frontier. Russians begin mobilization of five army corps. Germany approves of Austrian ultimatum to Serbia.

JULY 26—Serbia replies to Austrian ultimatum, which reply Austria rejects as unsatisfactory. Partial mobilization of armies of Germany, France and Russia. Hostilities open on Austro-Serb frontier. England prepares fleet.

JULY 27—Germany asks if Russia is mobilizing. Russia replies it is not mobilizing, but announces firmer stand for Serbia. Sir Edward Grey proposes joint plan of mediation. France and Italy accept. Germany withholds reply.

JULY 28—Austria declares war on Serbia. Russia rejects German proposal that czar remain neutral. All nations rush mobilization plans. Hostilities broaden on Austro-Serb frontier. Russia issues order for complete mobilization of army. All Europe arming for war. JULY 30—Market of world in maelstrom of excitement over war situation. Germany, France, Russia, and England rush war preparations. Thousands of Americans flee European capitals.

JULY 31—Austria orders complete mobilization of army. Final effort to settle dispute by diplomacy fails. Russia declares war on Austria.

AUG. 1—Germany declares war on Russia. German troops invade Luxemburg, is also very well prepared. France orders general mobilization. Italy declares its neutrality.

AUG. 2—German troops cross French frontier; skirmishes of outposts reported. Russians and German forces clash on frontier. Great Britain calls out naval reserves and plans mobilization of army.

AUG. 3—England takes side of France and notifies Germany it will oppose attack on north and west coasts of France. German ambassador leaves Paris. French order ambassador at Berlin to ask passports. Germany sends ultimatum to Belgium demanding permission for army to cross to French frontier. Belgium refuses and England supports Belgium's stand.

AUG. 4—England serves ultimatum on Germany, demanding that the neutrality of Belgium be observed. Germany refuses and England and Germany declare war. Entire naval and military forces of Great Britain set in motion.

LATE WAR BULLETINS

(By Associated Press)

ANOTHER GERMAN CRUISER SUNK.

Madrid, Spain, Aug. 6.—A dispatch from the Canary Islands says a British squadron has sunk one German cruiser and captured another.

APPROVES ENGLAND'S ACTION.

New York, Aug. 6.—In a cablegram from Scotland, Andrew Carnegie, the famous peace advocate, approves of England's course in the present crisis.

GERMANY THREATENS ITALY.

London, Aug. 6.—A Paris dispatch says that Germany has sent an ultimatum to Italy stating that unless Italy supports the allies, Germany and Austria Hungary, Germany will declare war upon her. There is no definite confirmation of this report.

GERMANS BOMBARD SEABOARD.

London, Aug. 6.—The Mail's Copenhagen correspondent says that a German squadron is bombarding Sveaborg, Finland.

AIRSHIPS DESTROYED.

London, Aug. 6.—Dispatches from Brussels say that a German aeroplane and a Zeppelin dirigible were brought to earth today by shots near Havre.

GERMAN CRUISERS IN PORT.

Rome, Aug. 6.—The Tribuna publishes a report that the German cruisers, Breslau and Goeben, which were reported sunk by the French, arrived at Messina, Italy, today.

THREATEN TROUBLE IN CHINA.

Tokio, Aug. 6.—It is reported that the Revolutionists in China are showing activity and it is feared the European war may inspire an outbreak.

WOUNDED ARRIVE AT HARWICK.

London, Aug. 6.—Twenty-two German and six British wounded sailors reached Harwick today, following the action between destroyers on the North Sea.

DANCE SATURDAY NIGHT.

A dance will be given at Rosbrook hall Saturday night by a number of local young men. The dancing public is given a cordial invitation to attend. Music will be furnished by the Marquette orchestra.

Orders were received at Sterling to discontinue the stone ballasting on the Northwestern. The first raise is to be completed and the ballasting set, but no start is to be made on the second raise. Whether the tightening of the money market is to blame or the fear of the railroad officials that the common laborers will be called back to Europe is not known.

URANIUM SAYS LUSITANIA ESCAPED CRUISERS

SAYS HE INTERCEPTED MESSAGE FROM BIG GERMAN LINER — GERMAN CRUISERS REPORTED SUNK BY BRITISH.

MAURETANIA ARRIVED

STEAMED INTO HALIFAX THIS MORNING WITH 1,400 AMERICANS ABOARD — WILL LAND THERE.

EUROPE MUST GET OUR CROPS

Secretary Redmond Says It Is Up to Europe to Provide Ships for Movement.

(Associated Press.)

New York, Aug. 6.—Captain Hensig of the steamship Uranium today characterized as "absolutely untrue" the report he had made yesterday of intercepting a wireless from the steamer Lusitania to the effect that two German cruisers which had been pursuing the Lusitania had been sunk by two British warships.

Uranium officials said there had been no report of that nature from the captain and officials of the Cunard line, owners of the Lusitania disclaimed all knowledge of any such message from the liner.

Though the British consul refuses to discuss the matter, it is reported that Capt. Hensig of the Uranian reported to the consulate of his interception of the wireless messages. It is known the Lusitania has been dodging German warcraft and the report of the engagement of the warships received some credence.

AMERICANS ARRIVE.

(Associated Press.) Halifax, Nova Scotia, Aug. 6.—The Mauretania arrived here this morning with 1,400 passengers aboard, who will probably be landed here. The Mauretania was conveyed from the Sable Islands by a British warship.

Another Ship Arrived.

The White Star liner Cedric from Liverpool raced into the harbor here also, presumably to escape the German warships in the vicinity of the Great Banks.

(Editor's Note: Dr. A. W. Chandler of this city was a passenger aboard the Mauretania and his wife and many friends will be overjoyed to learn of the safe landing of the big liner.)

AMBASSADOR LEAVES.

London, Aug. 6.—The German ambassador and his wife left for Germany today. The ambassador appeared a broken man.

REPORT NAVAL ACTION.

(Associated Press.) London, Aug. 6.—The Chronicle's correspondent at Harwich says that it is believed naval action is progressing in the North Sea and that 200 prisoners and wounded are being brought in by a torpedo boat. The third torpedo boat flotilla went into action yesterday and returned last night but little damaged, the batteries of the flagship Amphion being slightly injured.

IT'S UP TO EUROPE.

(By Associated Press.) Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—Secretary Redfield said today that American crops can and must move to Europe. "Will Europe starve or provide transportation? It is up to the other fellow to provide the ships," said Redfield.

HAD OPERATION.

Mrs. Gilroy of Route 1, who underwent an emergency operation for appendicitis at the hospital Tuesday evening, is satisfactorily recovering.

SHERIFF POISONED BY IVEY ON RANGE

INFECTED AT SHOOT AT GALT SUNDAY—EARL BUCK ALSO SUFFERING.

Sheriff C. P. Reid is suffering from dty poisoning which he got at Camp Palmer near Galt Sunday while participating in the shoot of the Sixth regiment teams. The poison has broken out on his neck and scalp, causing him considerable annoyance. Has Blood Poisoning.

Earl Buck of the Edwards book store is inconvenienced with an attack of blood poisoning which has appeared on his left forearm. The infection is not serious, but caused him considerable trouble.

START COLLECTION OF DELINQUENT TAX

GARNISHMENT IS STARTED AGAINST MANY MALE RESIDENTS OF TOWN.

Suits and collections have been instituted against those delinquent in the payment of the poll tax. Garnishments have been served at some of the local manufacturing houses and proceedings are in full way to collect the tax instituted by the vote of the people last April.

Quite a few of those from whom the payment is due have paid the amounts due, but many more are still numbered among those tardy in payment, and the officials are finding it necessary to collect under the law.

LOVELANDS CAUGHT 143 FISH IN A DAY

REPORT EXCELLENT SPORT AND HAPPY OUTING AT STURGEON BAY, WIS.

The following excerpt from a letter written to F. X. Newcomer by Geo. C. Loveland who, with his wife is spending the summer at Sturgeon Bay, Wis., will be of interest to many Dixonites: "One of the two pea canning factories in this town put up three and one-half million cans last year. They closed yesterday for the season. Thirty cars of strawberries were shipped from here this year and one hundred cars of cherries. Cherry growing is a thriving industry, 600 acres in one orchard. We are now served with them fresh from the trees every day. Also with raspberries and currants, which are very abundant. We are enjoying the fishing. We bring in from twenty to forty several days in the week. Our former high score, caught in one day here two years ago, was 87. Thursday of last week, wife and I rowed back to the hotel with 143 black bass, rock bass, pickerel and perch, mostly the latter."

IS THE MILLENNIUM COMING THIS YEAR

PROPHECY MADE EIGHTEEN YEARS AGO IS BEING PARTLY FULFILLED.

Freeport Journal-Standard: About years ago Dr. D. C. L. Mease cut the following item from a copy of this paper, he believing that the Mease referred to might be a distant relative of his. He has kept the clipping ever since, and now some people who read it may think that the Mease referred to was more of a prophet than people gave him credit for being when he uttered this prophecy of 18 years ago, as clipped from this is the war and the wars he predicted have come to pass. The prophecy of 18 years ago, as clipped from this paper by Dr. Mease, is as follows:

Not many miles from Ponce de Leon, in one of the most mountainous parts of the Missouri Ozarks, lives a quaint character known to the country round as Parson Mease. He poses as both prophet and priest, and while in creed he professes to be what is called a millennialist—that small sect which is now looking for the second coming of the Messiah—yet Larson Mease claims that he never received his doctrine from any man, nor learned it from any book. He is directly inspired, he says, and his knowledge of the future came to him in a vision at night, revealing the meaning of Bible prophecies, when a lad, many years ago.

"Christ is now here," he says. "He came in the year 1873, but he will not disclose his presence, except to a little band of followers, until the year 1914, and then will burst the kingdom of heaven on earth and the reign of glory and peace and happiness long promised by prophets and seers. Then Christ will be seen and recognized by all, and the devil's sentence of 1,000 years in chains will commence. "Mut," and Parson Mease solemnly shakes his head as he utters it. "What an awful time the world will witness between now and then. Nations will be torn asunder in revolutions and war and the fearful battle of Armageddon will be waged around the globe. Terror will prevail for awhile, till the Messiah shall sit upon his throne and proclaim peace to the world."

"I have faith in the Democratic party and in President Woodrow Wilson to bring about a better condition for all our people. Every citizen of our land should be grateful because we have a man like President Wilson at the head of our government. He is a man of achievement; a man who keeps the promises he makes to the people. He promised a revision of the tariff, downward, and the law has been passed; he promised an income tax—something we had been striving to get for 20 years—and it is on the statute books; he promised us a currency law, and one that every banker in the land says is a good law, is about to become effective. All that he has accomplished in less than a year.

"The president has a further program for the betterment of our government and our people. I would like to have the opportunity of helping him put through that program. I would like to have the opportunity to serve the people of my native state, and I believe I have the ability to serve them. That is why I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States senator."

SAMARTAIN ARMY OPENING IN THIS CITY

Staff Captain and Mrs. McKarn, Capt and Mrs. Hartman and Capt. L. Hanner have arrived in this city from Station headquarters at Chicago, to establish a work here known as the Samartain Army. They expect to open a home here for homeless and friendless women and children, also a free day nursery and also a mission hall. They will hold meetings nightly on the street, visit the sick and care for the poor. Capt. and Mrs. Hartman, Capt. L. Hanner will be the officers in charge.

How many men and women are suffering from aching, tired feet when the well known foot powder, Healo, would bring them great relief! Ask at this office.

DEMOCRATS HEAR ROGER SULLIVAN

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR U. S. SENATE SPOKE IN DIXON LAST EVENING.

RECEPTION AT ELKS CLUB

Many People Heard and Met the Chicago Politician Who Asks for L. Y. Sherman's Position.

Roger Sullivan, probably the most powerful democratic chief in this state, arrived in Dixon last evening shortly after 6 o'clock, escorted into the city by a delegation of automobiles from here. He was taken directly to the Dixon Inn, where he and his party had dinner, and at 8 o'clock Mr. Sullivan addressed an audience of several hundred people from an automobile on the corner of Hennepin avenue and First street. Mr. Sullivan was introduced by Mayor W. B. Brinton, an intimate friend of the candidate for the United States senate, who spoke of him in very friendly and, in fact, glowing terms. After the talk by Mr. Sullivan, he was taken to the Elks club, where a reception was held by him for the voters who wished to meet him.

Mr. Sullivan went from here to Sterling this morning. He will speak in Whiteside county towns today and will spend tonight in Rock Island. In his speech in Dixon last evening Mr. Sullivan said, in part:

"For the first time in the history of Illinois the several parties are to nominate candidates for United States Senator in a direct primary. For the first time in the history of the country senators are to be elected by a direct vote of the people. I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination. We are to have an elimination contest in our party to pick the man who will represent us at the election. In the old days the candidate was named in party caucus, and elected by the legislature. Were the conditions now as they were then, I would not be a candidate.

"I have been active in the Democratic party and more or less in the public view for a good many years; I have been much written and talked about. Some persons of that class who have the means and the desire to misrepresent and to disseminate misinformation have been trying to give me a reputation that is not in keeping with my character. So I have come among you, hoping that you may get to know me as I really am, and that you may learn I am not as some fellow has told you I am.

"It is natural that you should ask, though, 'Who is Roger Sullivan, and why should we vote for him?' Well, I began life as a humble boy as anyone could. I was born at Belvidere, up here in Boone county, and if I am elected I will be a 'native son' senator, and the first one, I have been told, that Illinois will have ever had. My parents were poor, and I began working for my living when I was seven years old. I have been working ever since, and if you elect me to the senate I will go on working for your interests, for the good of my state, and for the welfare of the people at large. I am not one of the idle rich, nor am I one of the idle poor. I am a working man.

"I have faith in the Democratic party and in President Woodrow Wilson to bring about a better condition for all our people. Every citizen of our land should be grateful because we have a man like President Wilson at the head of our government. He is a man of achievement; a man who keeps the promises he makes to the people. He promised a revision of the tariff, downward, and the law has been passed; he promised an income tax—something we had been striving to get for 20 years—and it is on the statute books; he promised us a currency law, and one that every banker in the land says is a good law, is about to become effective. All that he has accomplished in less than a year.

"The president has a further program for the betterment of our government and our people. I would like to have the opportunity of helping him put through that program. I would like to have the opportunity to serve the people of my native state, and I believe I have the ability to serve them. That is why I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States senator."

Plans for Attacks Made.

In the war archives of Germany are complete plans for aerial attacks on both Paris and London. Details for such attacks have been figured out with Metz as the base. For an attack on London they calculate upon leaving Metz at darkness falls, crossing the channel at a height of 8,000 feet. Under ordinary circumstances London would be gained before midnight. Then the bag would be dropped to 3,000 feet and the work of destruction begun. Its nitroglycerine cartridges could render London helpless in a few hours. Furthermore, the English capital is inadequately protected with searchlights with which to detect a night attack.

Any of the nine non-rigid dirigibles in the British service would be unable to cope with one rigid Zeppelin.

Attacks on Paris have been outlined from the same base—Metz. Paris is better protected by sky searchlights than London.

France has 33 dirigibles, but all of the non-rigid type, which cannot be compared with the giant Zeppelins, of which Germany has 16, with as many more dependable dirigibles of other types.

On the Russian frontier Germany will find but trifling resistance to her air fleets.

Germany virtually is impregnable to an air invasion. At Metz, Leipzig, Cologne, Baden, Baden, Hanover, Frankfurt and Johannesburg she has the most powerful searchlights in the world.

RECEIVED ORDERS FOR ENTRAINING

COMPANY G WILL LEAVE DIXON ON PEORIA PASSENGER SUNDAY MORNING.

According to orders received by the commanding officers of Company G, Sixth Regiment, the members of the company, together with Company E of Sterling and I of Morrison, will leave Dixon Sunday morning on the Northwestern's Peoria passenger for Springfield for their week's encampment and school of instruction. The Sterling and Morrison companies will come to Dixon earlier Sunday morning and the three organizations will have special cars on the Peoria passenger, leaving here at 8:35 o'clock that morning. They will change cars at Peoria and arrive at Springfield at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

WALTON MAN ASKS DIVORCE

Through Attorney E. H. Brewster of this city, George Spankle of Marion township has filed suit in the Lee county circuit court asking divorce from his wife, Hazel Reed Spankle, to whom he was married June 9, 1909, and whom he charged with having deserted him on August 19, 1910.

ZEPPELINS RULE EUROPE'S SKIES

ancient origin. This she has made the deadliest machine that flies. I have worked as an itinerant mechanic on the military air craft of every nation of Europe.

Germany and France represent two distinct and different types in air fighting. France stakes her all on the aeroplane. The Gnome motor is her foundation. Germans cannot duplicate it. The Russian air corps are a mere shadow of the French system. Austria patterns her weak air corps after Germany. England's system is a composite between the two without the perfections of either.

The dirigible is a fighting machine—a dreadnought of the air. And the aeroplane is a scout cruiser, and little else.

Why Dirigible Surpasses.

Here, in brief, is why the dirigible surpasses the aeroplane as a firing machine:

It carries a crew of from ten to 25 men to take observations and direct operations.

Can carry as much as 25 tons of nitro-glycerine cartridges—sufficient to demolish Chicago.

Can hover over a city during night time in silence, and while slower, can outmaneuver an aeroplane, inasmuch as it can hold a stationary position, while an aeroplane must keep moving.

Carries rapid fire guns which can be aimed with deadly accuracy.

An aeroplane carries four men at best. It cannot carry effective pieces of ordnance and cannot drop bombs with any accuracy.

It can be heard and located by sound a mile distant, while a dirigible painted sky color with motors and lights shut off can neither be heard nor seen at night at a distance of 700 feet.

NEW YORK MOOSE FIGHT ON HINMAN; REBUKE COLONEL

DISSESSION AMONG PROGRESSIVES AT STATE MEETING IN NEW YORK WEDNESDAY.

ROOSEVELT DEFENDS SELF

Fight So Hot, However, That No Decision is Reached on Endorsement of Republican for Governor.

New York, Aug. 6.—The endorsement of Harvey D. Hinman, republican, by Theodore Roosevelt for the progressive party nomination for governor of New York, raised a storm at a meeting of 600 progressives from all parts of the state here yesterday.

Col. Roosevelt spoke in support of Mr. Hinman and, while his remarks were cheered, some of the speakers declared he had erred.

At times the disorder became so great that T. Douglas Robinson, the chairman of the state committee, who was presiding, gave up all attempts to keep order. The tumult was continued for several hours, but the meeting got nowhere adjourning with the issue unsettled.

Would Sound Out Hinman.

Amos Pinchot of New York offered a resolution providing for the election of a committee of five to frame and present publicly to Mr. Hinman and other candidates for nomination a list of questions regarding their position on policies to which the progressive party is committed.

Amid great confusion Henry Burger moved a substitute resolution asserting it was essential to the party that a straight progressive ticket be nominated this fall. The debate went on uproariously until Col. Roosevelt came in and began his speech.

Scorns Pinchot Proposition.

The former president made clear his position toward the Pinchot resolution with almost his first words.

"I want to smite the enemy," said he, "and not save our souls by passing nice little resolutions."

"This is not a party organized primarily for men to get office," he continued. "Occasions arise such as the one last year in the city of New York where our highest duty is to join on a union platform with men who may differ with us on many points, but who on the great issues stand for what we deem wisest and best from the standpoint of public good."

Disorder Follows Departure.

Disorder broke out anew after Col. Roosevelt finished his speech and departed.

It was finally decided to lay over the whole question for the time being.

CHAS. K. OSBORNE HAS PASSED AWAY

DIED AT HIS HOME EARLY TODAY—FUNERAL SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

The death of Charles K. Osborne occurred this morning at 6:30 o'clock at the late home on College avenue. By this death Dixon loses another of its oldest and most earnest citizens.

Chas. Osborne was born at Chelsea, Vermont, Sept. 1, 1828. He was married on Feb. 25, 1852, to Mrs. Lurancy Huntley. To this union three children were born, Estella, Alice and Charles Wesley. The family moved to Dixon in the fall of 1865, which place has been their home for the past 49 years. He was a member of the Modern Woodmen.

Mr. Osborne was preceded in death by his son, Charles Wesley, who died in infancy, and his wife, who passed away 13 years ago.

He is survived by his two daughters, Miss Estella, at home, and Mrs. Orville B. Anderson of this city, and by five grandchildren, Estella, Margaret, Olive, George and Charles Anderson, and also by two brothers, J. Wesley of Stoneham, Mass., and John of Los Angeles, Cal., and by one sister, Mrs. Alonzo Southwick of Millville, Mass.

The funeral services will be held at the home, 608 College avenue, on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. Osborne was a devout Methodist and Rev. Fred Stone of the M. E. church will officiate, and burial will be at Oakwood cemetery.

BELGIUM IS KEY TO FRENCH BORDER MAY BALK GERMAN PLAN OF INVASION

The vital importance of Belgium in a war between France and Germany lies in the fact that unless Germany may move across Belgian territory, neutralized by treaty, an invasion of France would have to be through the heavily fortified French frontier proper. The entire northeastern frontier of France is, roughly, 440 miles in length. For a distance of about 250 miles the frontier lies separate Belgium and Luxembourg from France. The remainder, about 190 miles, separates France from the German territory.

With the neutrality of Belgium observed, the scene of action would be reduced to the splendidly fortified Franco-German frontier proper. This line of defense runs broadly speaking from Verdun to Nancy to Epinal, to Belfort and to Besancon. Each of these cities is the center of a group of fortifications extending northwest and southeast, all facing the German border.

Behind this line of fortifications, France has a second line of defense, running parallel from Chalons to Langres, to Dijon and Besancon. This second line of protection is from 80 to 120 miles from Paris, and the first frontier line of fortifications is roughly speaking, from 140 to 220 miles in from the French capital. The French frontier from the Strait of Dover to German territory, the line that separates France from Belgium and Luxembourg, is also very well protected.

Thus a German advance through Belgium is, in effect, "going around the end."

CATTLE RAISER IS AGAINST THE SILO

JOHN G. IMBODEN SAYS THEY ARE UNPROFITABLE FOR FAST CATTLE FEEDING.

ONE OF THE BIG RAISERS OF STATE

Alfalfa and Silage Are Good Cattle Feed, Says Dean Skinner—Talk at State University.

Champaign, Ill., Aug. 6.—That the silo, which is being advocated to all cattle growers is not necessarily essential to profitable cattle feeding and that many of the silos now in use will be idle five years from now, because feeders will see that it is unprofitable to use them, was the belief expressed by John G. Imboden of Decatur, in an address at the University of Illinois.

Mr. Imboden is one of the big cattle raisers of the state and he does not use a silo. He does not say that the silo is not profitable for the man who wishes to spend a couple of years on a lot of feeders, but it is unprofitable to the man who buys a bunch of feeders and wishes to turn them in a short time afterward.

"I believe that there is no combination for feeding cattle that will give more satisfaction than alfalfa and silage," said Dean Skinner of the College of Agriculture, Purdue University, in an address before the Illinois Cattle Feeders' convention held at the University of Illinois.

"At the same time I believe some are inclined to discredit clover. In a number of tests this year we have shown that clover is equal to alfalfa, and in our state we can get much greater yields of clover than alfalfa on the same land. But as clover will not stand the drought while alfalfa does, it seems conclusive that alfalfa is the thing. The merits of alfalfa as a feed are known to everyone, and I think I am sufficiently backed in my statement that alfalfa and silage are the best combination that is to be offered."

"We are undoubtedly up against the greatest beef shortage in this country that was ever known," said John T. Alexander of Chicago, when interviewed while in Champaign attending the Illinois Cattle Feeders' convention, at the University of Illinois.

"I will say with regard to the comparison of population of times past," he continued, "Our imports of foreign meats for the remainder of this year must be light or quite moderate, for they only have the facilities to ship a limited amount. But next year we can expect increased receipts, as they will have more boats and will increase the supply of beef."

"As to the supply of strictly good corn fed cattle to be marketed during the remaining summer months, we look for them to gradually get scarcer as the summer season advances, and we can see nothing to prevent them selling at comparatively high prices."

WILL DRAIN MILE OF RIVER SUNDAY

POND BETWEEN STERLING DAMS WILL BE WITHOUT WATER.

Sterling, Ill., Aug. 5.—The water between the government and the lower dams in Rock river here will be drained dry Saturday afternoon and early Sunday morning the Sterling Water company will commence the work of laying the new main across the river at the foot of Fifth avenue.

Close Upper Gates.

The gates in the upper dam will be closed, and the gates of the Hennepin canal will be opened. D. CMFWYPCM will be opened wide, diverting the water from Rock river into the Hennepin canal. The water in the lower pond will be drained by opening of the gates of the wheel pits in the lower race.

The river will be drained for a distance of nearly a mile. This is causing quite a lot of excitement among the local boat owners. They must place their craft in the upper pond before Sunday.

LIST OF CANDIDATES FOR ILLINOIS ISSUED

Names of Aspirants Drawn from Hat for Precedence.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 6.—The list of candidates who have filed primary petitions in the office of Secretary of State Woods was given out. Secretary
Woods is out of the city and James O.
Monroe, his private secretary, who is in charge of the office, made the following statement in regard to the method used in determining the order in which the names of candidates were filed:
"We took the petitions which had arrived in the mail received at 8:49 o'clock on the morning of July 11 first and made slips with the names of a candidate on each slip. We then placed the slips in a hat and drew out the slips and placed the names of the candidates on the list in the order in which their names were drawn from the hat. Then we placed the names of the candidates who had filed their petitions at the door on the list after the list of those filing by mail in the order in which the petitions had been presented at the door."

Anti-Sullivan men are protesting loudly against the placing of Sullivan candidates at the top of the list in a large percentage of the districts for members of congress, members of the legislature and state central committeemen.

GERMANY IS BALKED IN BELGIUM

Brussels, Aug. 6.—The Belgian forces are reported to have won a sweeping victory near Spa, the famous Belgian watering place. Two entire regiments of Germans are said to have been decimated during the engagement.

An official statement declares that the German defeat at Liege was complete. The entire German advance was driven back in confusion, this report says. It is also stated that 800 German wounded are being brought to Brussels on a special train.

The Belgian troops engaged had been hurried forward from Liege to reinforce the border patrol. The Germans advanced along the railway in an armored train. The Belgians had posted artillery in position to command the railroad, and in addition had mined the track at a point where the road crossed a culvert.

Two Cars Blown Up.
When the train was squarely on the bridge the mine exploded, completely destroying the locomotive and the two forward cars filled with Germans. At the same time the Belgian artillery opened fire on the remainder of the German force which had been conveying the train.

The carnage was fearful. The Germans, although caught by surprise, put up a strong resistance, but they had no supporting artillery and finally retreated toward the frontier. In the meanwhile a Belgian column had been rushed to the rear of the German position, and the two regiments composing the assaulting column were caught in a trap. Many were killed before the officers in command surrendered.

Wounded Are Abandoned.
Most of those wounded were abandoned by the German army when it was forced to retreat. The Belgian artillery carried the day. The Germans attacked immediately on arrival without waiting for either infantry support or for the artillery.

It was because of this mistake that the Belgian forces were able to gain the advantage. When the infantry and supporting artillery reached the scene of battle it was found that the cavalry and motorcycle brigades had been decimated by the fire. The Germans charged, but could not carry the Belgian position, and finally the entire army was withdrawn toward the Meuse.

New Neutrality Proclamation.
Washington, Aug. 6.—Another neutrality proclamation, including Great Britain and Germany, not included in Tuesday's pronouncement, was prepared for issue by the president.

Germans Repulsed at Liege.
Brussels, Aug. 6.—German 80,000
Germans storming Liege, Belgium administered a severe reverse to the Kaiser's campaign against France. A furious artillery battle raged at Liege, on which 100,000 Germans are being flung.

Crossing the border at Dalhem, Francorchamps and Stavelot, 100,000 strong, the German army burned Vise and Argenteau, killing the resisting population. The sixth, seventh and tenth corps converged upon Liege, which is heavily fortified, only to be repulsed. Belgians further checked German advance by burning bridges and diverting one corps in Holland.

France Claims Victory.
Paris, Aug. 6.—The ministry of war states that French troops have routed German dragons and cavalry at Villiers-La-Montagne and Morfontaine.

Mob Destroys Embassy.
St. Petersburg, Aug. 6.—A mob destroyed the German embassy here.

Sweden May Join Against Kaiser.
Washington, Aug. 6.—Diplomatic dispatches indicate Sweden will join Great Britain if she is drawn into the war.

German Ships Seized.
Hull, England, Aug. 6.—Several German steamships anchored here were seized as prizes and their crews made prisoners of war.

British Warships Cut German Cables.
New York, Aug. 6.—British warships cut the German cables east of the Azores. American bankers placed $5,000,000 gold in Paris to the credit of Americans.

Mrs. Palmer to Join Nurses.
Paris, Aug. 6.—Mrs. Potter Palmer and Mrs. Francis Carolan, a daughter of George M. Pullman, are among those who have applied to join the French hospital service.

Germany Violates Swiss Neutrality.
Paris, Aug. 6.—It is reported from Montbellard, in the department of Doubs, that the Germans have violated
the neutrality of Switzerland.

English Capture Another.
London, Aug. 6.—The German steamer Wilhelm is reported to have been captured by the British cruisers off
the Newfoundland coast.

Russian Cavalry Repulsed.
Amsterdam, Aug. 6.—It is officially announced here that German forces have repulsed the Russian cavalry brigade near Solda. The Russian losses are reported to have been very heavy.

New York, Aug. 6.—J. P. Morgan &
Co. are understood to have obtained from the Bank of France, on the credit of their Paris branch, Morgan, Harjes & Co., $5,000,000 in gold, to be placed immediately at the disposal of transported across Germany to attack so much of the Russian army as may have been able to force its way over the powerful line of fortifications which guard the German eastern frontier.

KAISER PLANS TO CAPTURE PARIS BEFORE RUSSIA CAN ENTER GERMANY SAY OUR GENERAL STAFF OFFICERS

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—Developments in the German campaign against France impress the army general staff here with the similarity of the German advance as recorded in yesterday's dispatches to the move made exactly 40 years ago, at the beginning of the Franco-Prussian war, with the important difference that it was the great Second army corps of France which took the initiative, crossing the border to attack the Germans at Saarbrücken only to receive a stunning check.

By a singular coincidence, it was on August 2 that the battle of Saarbrücken took place. It was followed by the withdrawal of the French arms under Bazaine to Metz, where it was shut up for many months, only to be obliged in the end to capitulate to the German forces.

Struck Same Place in 1870.
The fact that the German staff has chosen again to strike at France in the very same place where the victorious campaign of 1870 was initialed has led the experts here to the conclusion that is Germany's intention to repeat closely the strategic movements which were crowned with the capture of Paris eight months later.

But the observers here are doubtful of the success of such a plan at present. It is pointed out that the French army is a very different fighting instrument from the ill-organized and insufficiently equipped force which went out to defeat 44 years ago. In artillery alone, it is said, the French are greatly superior to the Germans, and while the levies are not as well set up and smart in appearance as the Teutonic soldiers, it was said by a member of the general staff, who had personally visited both armies within the last year, that the men under the tri-color were possessed of a certain loose-jointed activity that promised to make them most formidable foes.

French Proceeding With Caution.
It was also pointed out that the French, while sufficiently enthusiastic, are no longer filled with the abandon which led them to destruction in the seventies, but are now proceeding with caution in their plans, and are likely to offer a much more stubborn resistance. "Experts here think it inconceivable that the French strategists should not have made certain against the repetition of the terrible mistakes which led Bazaine's army to its downfall.

On the other hand, the Germans have for years practiced on paper, and as far as possible in field maneuvers, the movements to be made on every square of the war map.
They are well acquainted with the strength of the French fortresses designed to prevent their advance; their system is as near perfect as human foresight can make it, and if they fail now at the outset it will not be for lack of the most perfect equipment that the work of a quarter of a century has been able to devise.

Commenting on yesterday's reports of the advance on Cirey, the military experts expressed the opinion that if the advance is the actual beginning of an invasion of French territory, it is believed that the purpose of the German staff is to make a desperate and formidable attempt to crush through the French lines of defense before they can be fully formed and organized and make a lightning-like campaign against Paris itself with the greater part of the German army.

It is believed here that the German idea is that this can be done before France's ally, Russia, can actually mobilize and get her vast army under way to attack Germany on the eastern frontier, and it is said that the Germans have the best of information to the real resources and weaknesses of the Russian troops, and are confident that the lack of proper transport facilities equipment is certain to make the task of mobilization a very slow and imperfect undertaking.

Germany Depending Upon Austria.
Then, the Germans also are counting on their allies, the Austrians, to worry the Russians sufficiently to delay a really dangerous attack from the east, for it is not believed that the small Serbian army can completely absorb the latent powers of the Austrians. It follows as a natural development of that plan of campaign that if the German onset on France is successful, the bulk of the army then will be immediately transported across Germany to attack so much of the Russian army as may have been able to force its way over the powerful line of fortifications which guard the German
eastern frontier.

As to British and Italian Armies.
The impression prevails among the experts that in the beginning, at least, neither Great Britain nor Italy will figure greatly in the mili-

THE ONE MAN POWER.

The present European war is really the outcome of the Russo-Japanese war. Before that Russia's great prestige and power kept in check all of the European nations, they being overawed by her imaginary exaggerated greatness. The result of the Russo-Japan war undermined Russia's prestige to the point of humiliation, of which Emperor William took advantage to forge ahead, with the result that Germany finally occupied Russia's former position as the most important war power in Europe. All this, together with the self-adulation of Emperor William, aroused the jealousy of the Czar, thus bringing about the present contest, which is really a struggle for supremacy between these two men. This shows the danger of one man power. No such power should in this twentieth century be permitted to exist by the people of any country. It has had its day and should become a bygone for the safety and happiness of the people of the world. If the European nations continue to fight among themselves, as the Mexicans have done, they will weaken themselves in men and money as well as prestige, and will put themselves in a position similar to Rome when overpowered by the barbarians, as through the weakness of their armies and money facilities they will become feeble. The East (China and Japan) will gain correspondingly in military and money strength, which will encourage them to combine to overthrow these once great nations.

CAUGHT ABROAD.

Annually American tourists are invited to Europe. Their money is wanted; their presence is desired. They make steamship lines rich; they fatten hotels; they support communities. They did not accept extraordinary hazards this year. They had no idea there could be an extraordinary hazard in Europe. The sky was as clear as a sky could be when they went over with their money. Now they are caught, by the tens of thousands, in an extraordinary condition, and the nations which have invited and welcomed them and their money are giving their distress scant attention.

Europe, when it comes out of this conflict flat and broken, will want American help. We shall have subscription papers for the starving people here and the perishing people there. We shall be asked to remember the humanities and help the victims of great disasters.

Let our government suggest to the governments of Europe that the time to earn the gratitude of the United States is now. Upset as Europe is, it can give a little attention to helpless foreigners. It can make their position easier.

Let it be understood that the United States will remember as a distinctly unfriendly act the disregard of its citizens who are caught in foreign lands. We are not powerless. We can afford to be mandatory. We can afford to be militant.—Chicago Tribune.

OILING COUNTRY ROADS.

Prescott Clark of this city is in Sterling to carry out a contract to spread twenty thousand gallons of oil on country roads leading out of Sterling. The plan is a fine one and should be followed by Dixon. The city of Sterling combined with the township to pay the costs and three miles of each of the following roads out of Sterling will be oiled: Dixon, Freeport, Morrison and Pana.

Well, you've heard Roger Sullivan talk and you've had a good look at him. What do you think of him?

The Lincoln Chautauqua opens again this year in Franklin Grove August 14th, and runs until August 19th. The people who are fortunate enough to be able to attend the chautauqua will get their money's worth. The program is excellent all the way through.

DESERVES CARNEGIE MEDAL.

Prof. Elssner, superintendent of the swimming beach at Assembly park, and the boy, George Wilson, who participated in the saving of the life of Miss Margaret Sullivan of Chicago, the other day, should both receive Carnegie medals for their bravery and noble action.

Elssner not only saved the life of the woman, but probably that of the boy also. The boy was also responsible for the saving of the life of Miss Sullivan, because he held her above water for some time while help was coming and, in fact, until his strength gave out, which was just before Elssner reached them.

An act such as was performed at the Assembly the other day should be rewarded, though neither one of them wish any recognition of his deed. It was noble heroism on the part of both man and boy. They saved a human life; that of a helpless woman.

WORST WAR SINCE FALL OF ROME.

The London Times in an editorial says:

"Recent events mean that Europe is to be the scene of the most terrible war she has witnessed since the fall of the Roman empire."

The Times throws the blame upon Germany, saying: "Germany could have stayed the plague had she chosen to speak in Vienna as she speaks when she is in earnest. She preferred to make demands in St. Petersburg and Paris which no government could entertain. She has lived up to the worst principles of the Frederician traditions, which disregard all obligations of right and wrong at the bidding of immediate self interest. She has resolved to crush France and trample upon the rights of those who stand in her way."

PROGRESSIVE HARMONY.

Well, well, well! The New York Progressives won't stand for Himman, the republican candidate for Governor who has the backing of Theodore Roosevelt. Amos Pinchot don't like him. Roosevelt was forced to make a speech at their convention yesterday in order to defend his attitude, and when he finished and left the hall, "disorder broke out anew." Harmony in the Bull Moose ranks seems to be about as prevalent as it is in the democratic camp.

Cool Climate

BY WALT MASON

An Eskimo was sighing before his igloo door; the snow around him was flying, which made him rather sore. The ice was in his galways, the snow was in his ears, and evermore and always the climate froze his tears. "Dog-gone this beastly blizzard," the Eskimo remarked, "it chills a fellow's gizzard and keeps his larynx barked. Ah, would that I were living in those United States, where Nature's always giving her sunshine to the skates! I've heard it said the weather is often there so hot that people get together and cuss — delightful thought. They have a summer season when blizzards do not blow, and no one thinks of freezin' or dying in the snow! Oh, it must be delightful to live in such a climate, away from every frightful old elemental crime. But Doctor Cook informed me that folks don't like the heat (the information warmed me with anger, I repeat); they don't appreciate it, the climate they have there; in fact, some people hate it, and rant around and swear." His meditation soured him — he might have saved his breath; a polar bear devoured him, and then it froze to death.

CURRENT COMMENT

Baltimore American: While there has been criminal negligence and crooked management in other American railroads, the New Haven crowd beat all records.

Illinois State Journal: Don't let the fact that a Baltimore man ruptured a blood vessel laughing over a funny story and bled to death frighten you. He might have done the same thing jawing at his wife or bawling out the umpire.

Any doctor will tell you that nothing is better for the human system than a whole-souled laugh—that is, nothing except two laughs or more.

When you get into a rage you destroy body tissue and fill the pores with poisons; and when you nurse a blue spell you overtax your liver—but a good laugh is as vivifying as a thunder shower on a muggy day. It expands the lungs, joggles the gizzard and puts the blood flow into a pleasant glow.

What is more, it is a thing you can cultivate. Almost everything has its funny angle. Even a funeral; if you are looking for mirth there. Remember the undertaker's assistant who came back to report on his first job? The boss asked him how the deceased's family were pleased and he proudly replied:

"I laid the old man out so well that his wife and daughter were tickled to death."

Hunt for humor and sweeten your life.

Bloomington Pantagraph: An Eastern paper lauds "Wilson's triumph in Mexico." While hoping for the best, it is a little soon yet to go into extravagant praise over the outcome. There is an ugly chasm between the rebel leaders and the federals which must be bridged while the president is about it.

Decatur Review: John Paul Jones has a worthy successor in Thomas D. of Chicago. Except that it is not the gentleman who shouts "Don't give up the ship!" while President Wilson bravely battles with a recalcitrant senate for his approval as a member of the federal reserve board.

Peoria Herald-Transcript: Carl Vrooman very properly notified Secretary of State Bryan that he would withdraw as a Democratic candidate for United States senator. All Democratic business should be transacted with the boss. Despite criticism heaped upon him, Mr. Vrooman is right.

WIT AND NEAR WIT.

The following official notice is posted on the wall of the municipal electric power plant of a town in the south of Germany:

"To touch these wires means instant death. Any one failing to respect this warning will be prosecuted and fined."

"Women have all sorts of excuses for wearing slit skirts."

"Yes, and some of these excuses are mighty slim."

"Say, pa."

"Well, my son?"

"I took a walk through the cemetery today and read the inscriptions on the tombstones."

"Well, what about it?"

"Where are all the wicked people buried?"

PLAY AT AMBOY.

The Marquette orchestra of this city has been engaged to furnish the music for the dances to be given during the chautauqua week at Amboy.

last evening.

Ed Slough of St. James was a Dixon caller today.

Frank Shultz of Sterling visited here on yesterday.

Miss White and Mrs. Woods of Amboy, shopped here on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Speck of Franklin Grove spent last evening in this city.

L. L. Edson of Chicago is here on business.

EXPECT DECISION ON CROSSING SOON

PARTIES AFFECTED THINK STATE COMMISSION WILL RULE ON CROSSING.

It is expected by States Attorney Harry Edwards and the officials of Lee county and Dixon township that the Illinois State Utilities Commission will not reach a decision on the petition for an overhead crossing at the McRoberts crossing west of the city before September 1. The transcript of the evidence and briefs and arguments of the attorneys are now in the hands of the commission, but it is believed the commission will not reach a decision before the first of the ensuing month.

AT THE FAMILY.

The bill at the Family theater for the latter half of the current week is a true variety program and one of exceptional merit and class from every standpoint. Through special effort, Manager Plein has secured for this brief engagement the famous comedian, Mr. William Lawrence, who is billed as "Entertainer De Luxe," which is a mild manner of expressing Mr. Lawrence's ability, and this goes both ways with the ever welcome William Lawrence, who can also be styled "Entertainer De Looks." At any rate, that he is a finished artist with a world of magnetism will be voted as soon as he introduces himself.

The Cleora Miller Trio of two ladies and a gentleman who have a musical and singing offering which is the last word in variety of this kind come highly recommended and much is expected of them during the engagement.

Pictures tonight: "His Sudden Recovery," "When One Night Call Came" and "Broncho Billy and the Mine Sharks."

"PEG O' MY HEART."

No play that has come to the Chicago stages in many years has achieved such a tremendous popularity with every class of theatergoer or enjoyed such a genuine prosperity as Oliver Morosco's production of J. Hartley Manners' delightful comedy of youth, love and laughter "Peg O' My Heart," now in its seventh week at the Garrick theater, Chicago.

On last Wednesday night "Peg O' My Heart" reached the healthy young age of just 50 performances on the Garrick stage and this philosophical little Irish girl and her associates are now romping merrily along towards the century mark. With the splendid start on the new season "Peg" has enjoyed it is very evident that she will achieve a record in Chicago that will rival that of Laurette Taylor in New York, where "Peg" made millions laugh and leave the theater happier for having met her during the uninterrupted run of 604 performances.

Peggy O'Neill in the title role at the Garrick gives a remarkable performance and has received no end of lavish critical praise for her flawless portrayal of the most lovable character that has ever come to the native stage. In support of Miss O'Neill, the producer, Oliver Morosco, has provided the original New York cast, including such notable players as Henry Stanford, Emilie Melville, Christine Norman, Clarence Handisides, Reginald Mason and others of equal worth and reputation.

Mrs. Holgrave and son Paul from Washington, this state who have been visiting at the Assembly, have returned home.

Dr. Lamar had the largest attendance at Chautauqua hall this morning of any meeting during the Assembly. Many chairs had to be carried from Bible hall to seat the audience. Mrs. McWethy had the next largest attendance of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hodson are guests for a few days at the Reynolds home from Peoria, Ill.

Assembly Notes

Miss Helen Parker is spending the last week of the Assembly with Miss Bessie Vaughn.

Miss McCullough of Iowa who has been ill for some time at the Assembly park, was taken to the Herbst home in Nachusa for treatment.

Chas. Hey is spending a few days at the Polo camp.

Miss Pearl Carbaugh of Oregon, Ill. who has been a guest of Miss Gladys Gonnerman, returned to her home yesterday.

Yesterday two of Mr. Elssner's progressive little swimmers indulged in a race. The competitors were Ryan and Gardiner, the former being successful in the race, and winning the plaudits of the spectators.

Mrs. Albert Linn of Rochelle, and two children are guests at the Assembly for a few days.

Today is visitors' day at Nachusa Orphanage, many visitors will go out from the Assembly to visit at the orphanage.

Mrs. Heiple of Washington has returned to her home.

IS RECOVERING.

George Hilliker, who for some time has been suffering from a severe attack of blood poisoning, is slowly improving to the delight of his many friends, as his case for a time promised to be one of extreme seriousness.

ROCHESTER REPUBLICAN SAYS REMOVAL OF DIXON MAN WAS A MISFORTUNE.

The following is an extract from the Rochester (Ind.) Republican of recent date: "The Republican, which is in receipt of a copy of the Dixon Evening Telegraph, in which we find a column account of the graduating concert given by W. F. Strong's Music school. We have always thought it was a misfortune to have the Strong's move away from Rochester, but they are making good in Dixon, while Rochester College has gone glimmering."

It is pleasing to note that the local school has been established upon so successful a basis and that Dixon has such an institution where the best in music is offered to our children.

SCHRADER WANTS PAROLE.

J. R. Flock of Sterling has received a letter from Elmer Schrader, who was sentenced to Joliet from the Lee county circuit court for the larceny of a big sum of money from William Shaw of Amboy, in which the prisoner says he is trying to get a parole, and asking the Sterling man to assist him.

DR. A. W. LAMAR IS SPEAKER THIS EVE.

"DIXIE SINCE THE WAR" IS SUBJECT OF SOUTHERN ORATOR AT ASSEMBLY.

TOMORROW IS A BIG DAY

"Farmers' Day" Will Bring Farmers in From All Over This Part of State—Fine Program

If you have not heard Dr. A. W. Lamar, you should hear him this evening. His lecture will please and entertain you. His subject will be "Dixie since the War—The Struggles and Triumphs of the South." Being a Southerner, Dr. Lamar is of course an orator, one you will remember long after he has taken his departure from Dixon.

There will be another moving picture program after the close of Dr. Lamar's lecture.

Big Day Tomorrow.

All arrangements have been completed for the big day of the Assembly tomorrow. Word has reached the management that thousands of farmers are coming to spend Friday on the Assembly grounds. They are coming with their families, their baskets of lunch. They are coming prepared to stay over for the evening's program.

When you remember the quality of the program the Assembly management has set aside for the entertainment and instruction of the farmer, it is no wonder that they think it is worth while to come on Friday. So everything is in readiness for the farmer.

In connection with the program of alfalfa the farmer will have an opportunity of hearing the entertainment given by the Pittsburgh Ladies' Orchestra.

Local Talent.

Secretary Bailey and Miss Hill are planning to put on a splendid entertainment on Saturday evening. Many girls and boys will participate in the exercises. This home talent entertainment is always looked forward to with considerable interest. In years past this one entertainment has proven to be one of the most interesting of all.

Children are interesting and when they give an entertainment it is usually first class. Both Secretary Bailey and Miss Hill are experts in this line of work and when they advertise an entertainment everything will be up to the mark.

The musical attraction for Saturday and Sunday is the Royal Austrian orchestra. No better musical program could have been kept for the closing days than the program to be given by this remarkable musical company.

The company will play a sacred concert Sunday evening and unless the weather is different than it is now, one of the largest crowds of the session will be here Sunday and Sunday evening.

The speaker for Sunday afternoon will be Father Patrick R. Dunigan, a man people will want to hear for Father Dunigan has a message that ought to be heard:

The Dream of Ben Hur.

Henry W. Rose of Newark, N. J., delivered his great reading last evening, "The Dream of Ben Hur," illustrated with stereopticon slides and the Auxetophone. Mr. Rose's reading is his interpretation of the life of Ben Hur as it appears to him. His delivery was clear and distinct, making it possible for him to be heard at all parts of the auditorium. The slides were superbly colored and of interest to all who had the treat of seeing them. They were interesting, too, in that they are the only set of the kind in existence. The slides have been posed for by the players in the magnificent New York production.

The Auxetophone produced a number of extra selections from Madame Schumann-Heink in song.

The Auxetophone is a very complicated machine, much like a phonograph, but much larger. It has a sounding box that Mr. Rose considers to be the greatest invention, because it reproduces the exact sound of the human voice. Its formation is like that of the human throat, and vocal chords. The air chest inside the mechanism compares to the lungs of a human being.

Dr. Rose's lecture proved a very popular one, his audience was loud in their praise of his idea of Ben Hur, the necessary parts are understood, and if one has not read this vital narrative from the pen of General Wal-

SENATE PASSES ANTITRUST BILL

Big Margin Given Federal Trade Commission Measure.

FINAL VOTE STOOD 53 TO 16

Two Democrats Oppose Measure—Only One Independent Amendment—Two Others of Administration Measures Now Up—Senate Hopes to Adjourn by Aug. 25.

Washington, Aug. 6.—The federal trade commission bill, the first of the three anti-trust bills to be considered by the senate, passed by a vote of 53 to 16. Two Democrats, Senators Thomas and West, voted against it.

The only independent amendment added for the day was one by Senator Sautsbury of Delaware, providing that corporations having capitalization of $5,000,000 should maintain an agent in Washington to accept service. Senator Pomeroy had two small amendments accepted by the senate without objection, one to permit complainant in a proceeding before the trade commission to appear by attorney and the other requiring that a record of proceedings before the trade be kept in every case.

May Adjourn Aug. 25.

Following the passage of the federal trade commission bill the Clayton bill was made the unfinished business of the senate. The senate now hopes to finish the trust program and adjourn by Aug. 25.

The bill passed establishes a federal trade commission to be composed of five members not more than three of whom shall be members of the same political party. The president will make these appointments subject to confirmation by the senate.

Chicago Banker Sees Bright Business Days Ahead.

Chicago, Aug. 6.—George M. Reynolds, president of the Continental and Commercial National bank, told the Chicago Association of Commerce that he believed that within a week all restrictions of currency would be removed and business would go on as formerly.

With the continuation of the splendid cooperation of the people of Chicago and an appropriation by congress of $100,000,000 with which to supply ships to carry our exports, Mr. Reynolds saw no reason why every problem ought not to be solved, he said.

NICARAGUAN TREATY SIGNED

Secretary Bryan Affixes Name to Pact to Pay Over $3,000,000.

Washington, Aug. 6.—Secretary Bryan and General Chamorro, the Nicaraguan minister, signed the treaty to pay $3,000,000 to the Central American republic for perpetual interoceanic canal rights and naval bases in the gulf of Fonseca.

It is framed along lines Mr. Bryan has outlined to the senate foreign relations committee and is taken to have the approval of that body.

BOY AWARDED HERO MEDAL

J. Maurice Howell Too Modest to Furnish Commission With Facts.

Duquoin, Ill., Aug. 6.—Attracted by a story which appeared recently in a St. Louis newspaper telling of the heroism of J. Maurice Howell of this city in saving the life of Max Axley, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Axley, the Ralston Furina Hero commission of Minneapolis, Minn., has just notified Howell that he will be awarded a handsome gold medal for his noble act.

The Axley boy had gone in swimming in a pond near the Howell home, and unknowingly walked beyond his depth. His cries attracted the attention of Howell, who arrived on the scene just in time to rescue the lad from drowning. The Ralston commission immediately communicated with Howell, who modestly declined to have the honor bestowed upon him. Friends supplied the commission with the necessary facts of the incident. The presentation of the medal is to be a public affair.

Now Is One of Idle Rich.

Belvidere, Ill., Aug. 6.—C. D. Klingler, a street car motorman, resigned his position today when notified he had fallen heir to an estate worth $25,000. The property was left him by an uncle, Edward Pegel, of Shamokin, Pa.

Laura Jean Libbey's Talks on Heart Topics

(Copyright, 1914, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate)

HOW TO TREAT A SWEETHEART.

"The kindest and the happiest pair Will find occasion to forbear, And something every day they live To pity and perhaps forgive."

The man who has progressed sufficiently in his love affairs to call his best girl sweet heart need not think that love's pursuit is entirely won.

This is the critical epoch in lovers' lives. He has not as yet asked the all-important question. Hopes and fears are equally balanced in his heart. If he's too bold in showing her affection he frightens the very timid maiden. If he restrains his ardor many a girl thinks him lacking in heart warmth, even in interest. After escorting her home from some affair and the hour is drawing close to midnight, he shouldn't expect to be invited in, even though the girl's mamma or spinster aunt is awaiting them in the parlor. Nor should he linger to caress her at the door. If a girl refuses him a good-night kiss he should not insist upon it. More young men have lost nice girls in this way than any other. Because she refuses he should not taunt her with being an iceberg, wanting in affection, when she may be one of those nice little maidens who remember the instructions laid down by her wise old grandmother: "Too much affection is a bar to matrimony with young people." If he would hold the girl's affection at this critical juncture he must be in his wooing judicious, neither too bold nor too backward. He must show tenderness without giving her cause for annoyance, yielding gracefully to her will and not expecting her to be pleased with all that he says or does. Girls ought to be chary of their kisses, as every sensible young man should know. Instead of being angry with her for refusing he should respect her all the more.

He hasn't earned the right, as yet, to claim her undivided attention, nor must his conversation always be on the one topic of love. It would weary even the most enamored of girls and he would long meditate over how it was that some other young man who had been little in the society of women and knew nothing comparatively of love-making cut him out. The wise man proposes and weds his sweetheart. He is a wise man who realizes that he should not make violent love to a sweetheart and allow her to starve for the crumbs of affection after she becomes his wife. The happiest pair are those who do not do so much courting, but treat each other cordially, tenderly, yet with a certain restraint, looking forward to the tying of the marriage knot.

A MARRIED MAN'S RIGHTS.

Without our hopes, without our fears, Without the home that plighted love endears, Without the smile from partial beauty won, Oh! what were man? A world without a sun.

Are there hard and fast rules regarding a married man's rights? Let us see!

He has the right to be called the pillar of society because he is the foundation, the main support of a family. He has the right to elbow plums men aside and pluck all the plums the best positions offer, because he is married. His rights extend further to paying the household bills, delivering early night and day to make money to give his wife comforts, to buy her costly clothes, that she may enjoy a life of luxury and ease, bridge, afternoons and hesitation waltzing at night.

A married man has a right to be up before dawn on a bitter cold morning, making a fire in the kitchen range, calling his wife when the coffee is ready.

A married man's rights are to deny himself anything more than he absolutely needs and to save, save, save, while his little girls are growing up.

The girls declare, when they are old enough to have beaux, that father has a right to refurbish the parlor. He has a right to keep out of it when young men are calling. The married man has a right to pay his wife's bills when she is off summing in summer and wintering in winter. The right is his to furnish the family with an automobile, servants and cash. The married man has a right to go to bed early to rest up for the next day's work, while his family are enjoying the theater or ball.

He has the right to wear clothes of last year's cut, inexpensive, even a bit shabby, so long as his women folk are arrayed in the gowns of the prevailing mode.

He has the right to invite marriageable young men home to dinner to meet the daughters, that the certain lectures may ease upon him.

William Bardwell, phone 303, is agent for the Saturday Evening Post and will deliver a copy of it at your door upon request.

He has the right to have his say so about having the kind of dinner he likes—corned beef and cabbage at least once a week—that one day of all others when guests rarely drop in to dine—Monday, wash day. The married man has a right to give his daughter in marriage to a man he detests after having argued the matter out with his wife and lost the battle. Father has a right to take the new son-in-law into his business, putting the young man's experience against his hard-earned capital.

The married man has a right to keep up with the times that his family may be pleased instead of ashamed of his carelessness in dress, speech or habits.

A married man has a right to all the devotion of his family. He has a right to provide for them bountifully—and to be glad that he is alive.

WHEN COURTSHIP IS ONLY TALK.

I told her of the knight that wore Upon his shield a burning brand; And that for ten long years he wooed The Lady of the Land.

It is wonderful how many excuses women make for men who court for years, but somehow evade popping the question.

Some women lay it to a man's bashfulness; his cold nature; lack of sufficient funds; anything, everything, but the right reason, that he really doesn't want to marry. Of course he gives her innumerable hints, and certainly gives her to understand that he is fond of her. He realizes that it would be a very foolish girl who would waste her time on him otherwise.

Women are wont to pin their hopes upon such trifling expressions as "some day, I expect to have a home of my own." "Few men settle down until after they marry." "It takes a wife to give a man ambition to accumulate." When a girl repeats this talk to her anxious relatives, she softens their hearts toward him. They conclude, with such ideas, it is only a question of a short time until he asks her hand in marriage. But when the seasons come and go, and there is no sign of a coming wedding, the practical ones of the household begin to doubt his matrimonial intentions and assert their belief that he is only passing away the time at her expense—bearing himself tall. No modest girl can take the initiative and give a man a hint that she's interested in knowing his intentions.

It is a delicate matter for her folks to interfere. He may have valid reasons. Then again he may not have any reason for not proposing at present. In Boston, they believe in taking time by the forelock. The women have petitioned the legislature to pass a bill fixing the legal limit of two years on courtship. If a man calls regularly upon a woman for that length of time, monopolizing her entire attention, they would have it assumed that he is on marriage intent, and he would be held legally accountable if he attempts to shirk the result of courtship—marriage. We suggested that courtship should have a time limit, in this column, some time ago. The Boston women were quick to catch the good judgment of the suggestion. Long-drawn-out courtships rarely end in wedlock. In such instances, the man in the case grows languid in his love making. The fire has died out of his heart. The same woman cannot kindle his ardor into eager love again. When a girl realizes that a man is all talk—but her hopes end there—out of duty to herself and her own future she should give some other man a chance, relieving not only her anxiety, but that of the friends nearest and dearest to her as well. The man who talks love, but not marriage, is the bane of society.

Felt He Had Paid His Fare.

It happened on a three-cent car line. The car was crowded. A German got on. He bought a quarter's worth of tickets (eight). The conductor took one and handed him the others. "Tickets," called the conductor as he came around for fares again. The unsophisticated one gave him another. Other calls, and finally the German handed over his last ticket, saying: "Py himmel, I pay no more tickets! I walk!" And he got off and walked.

Over sixty transient guests ate supper at the Colonial Inn on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. C. Hewitt has purchased a new touring car.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Minneapolis Journal: The fatal pestilences that used to ravage the world have been all but abolished. Typhoid fever would follow them soon if its infection-bearer resided in insect instead of in human bodies. It has disappeared already in disciplined services, where science can reach it through government authority. Some time perhaps human units will submit to the discipline of science or the individual will learn to protect the body.

HEARD IN DIXON

How Bad Backs Have Been Made Strong—Kidney Pills Corrected.

All over Dixon you hear it. Doan's Kidney Pills are keeping up the good work. Dixon people are telling about it—telling of bad backs made sound again. You can believe the testimony of your own townspeople. They tell it for the benefit of you who are suffering. If your back aches, if you feel lame, sore and miserable, if the kidneys act too frequently and off color, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that has helped so many of your friends and neighbors. Follow this Dixon citizen's advice and give Doan's a chance to do the same for you.

Mrs. J. Helfrich, R. F. D. No. 4, Dixon, says: "While I have never taken Doan's Kidney Pills myself, I am strongly recommend them and I am glad to confirm the public statement one of my family gave in their praise some years ago. For a long time he suffered from irregular action of his kidneys. He also had backache and found relief only when he used Doan's Kidney Pills, that he got at Leake Bros. Drug Store. They stopped the pain and restored his kidneys to a normal condition."

Mrs. Helfrich is only one of many Dixon people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Helfrich recommends—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. ## DR. A. W. LARWAR IS SPEAKER THIS EVE

face, he or she now will have an incentive to do so.

Dixie Before the War.
Percival Reid of Kansas opened the afternoon's entertainment with a fine vocal selection.

Dr. A. W. Lamar, the eloquent lecturer of the Southland, spoke before an appreciative audience yesterday afternoon on the topic, "Dixie Before the War." He is one of the best lecturers of the Southland. A typical gentleman of the chivalrous old school, now so rare. His ability to paint word pictures before the audience so that one can see, as he sees it, the old scenes of the idyllic south. The land whose sun of triumph has set, only to rise again in a greater triumph, of a united people, in an unbreakable Union.

Dr. Lamar opened his lecture with the remark that there were very few men left who could remember the old, splendid times of the ancient South. The glories and fame of Dixie he recounted in the great men she had furnished for the service of the country, the presidents a large number of whom were southern gentlemen, senators and other servants of the government without number had aided in preserving the union in 1776 and 1812. The southland had furnished the purest race of Americans of any locality in the United States for there are fewer foreigners there than in any other part of the country.

He brings the tears to our eyes as he described the old idyllic life on the plantation in the southland. The love of the old mammy for the children of her master, her solicitous care, and anxiety for them when they gradually grow away from her, appeals to us with great force. Dr. Lamar describes the beginnings of South Carolina, in the arrival of the Huguenots from persecution in France, his ancestors were among them, they began a settlement which gradually grew and became strong, until when the war called out the loyal sons, 52 commissioned Lamars were enrolled in the Confederate service. He spoke with great feeling about the traits of the negroes in the camps and plantations of the south. He tells of their devotion, their faithful service, their religion and their humor, which he illustrates in such a striking and natural manner. Their deep religious feeling, especially the eloquent doctor dwells upon, that phase of negro life which has had an influence in the re-awakening of the south.

What the negro has been given, the southern man has given him—education, civilization, language and religion, and after the days of slavery the southern people did more for the benefit of the negro than the U. S. government has, who has spent many thousands for Indians, and other departments of the government than they have for the negroes, who have needed their help the most.

In Jelly Time—A Demonstration.

This afternoon Mrs. W. C. McWethy discussed a subject on which she is eminently capable of speaking, "In Jelly Time." She commenced her introduction by relating the experience of a young married couple and the trouble the young lady had with her first batch of jelly. Mrs. McWethy referred to the booklet gotten out by the Illinois University, her demonstrations were taken from it, and her own experience. She spoke on the importance of domestic science, and its position in the economic problems of today. Mrs. McWethy is one of the experts of the cooking department of the Women's club. Her discussion of the preparation of jelly is so vivid we can form a mental picture of its processes. She discussed the making of jelly from a scientific view point, relating the experiments of jelly authorities who had the greatest success in the finished product.

Religious Psychology.

Dr. Hoover discussed this morning the third lecture on Religious Psychology. He said the understanding of the Bible and religious teaching is a matter of faith alone. Knowledge does not satisfy for it seeks an explanation, while faith has a blind belief in the Christian religion. Then knowledge after having been reinforced by faith, can see the light and understand it. Faith is dual in character, the Divine and human are balanced in the human being. Faith excludes the baser feelings of stupid temper, pessimism and other human feelings that tend to sour humanity, if given a chance. A child has faith, which, if fostered, will prove a great safeguard against the inherent sin in the child. Faith constructs, makes the soul stronger and renders a feeling of intuition that the individual will be saved, and perceives truths that only the faithful can understand.

"It's mine, too," came the prompt reply.
"Is she going to marry the young man who saved her from drowning?"
"I think so."
"But is she sure that he is able to support her in the style to which she has been accustomed?"
"Yes, she looked him up in Bradstreet's before she fell in."

—Houston Post.

A benevolent old gentleman, seeing a little tot weeping, went up to it and said: "Now be a good boy and stop your crying."
"I can't," sobbed the child.
"But why can't you?"
"I can't!"
"Well, here's a penny; tell me why you can't be a good boy and stop crying!"

LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring back color, gloss and thickness with Grandma's recipe of Sage and Sulphur.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.
While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

This may be a new one to some of our readers: Enter to the only drink dispensary in the dusty southwestern town an engineer on an examination trip. A small crowd surrounds a happy-looking prospector who is setting them up. One man informs our engineer, "Jim just struck the thin edge of an ore body on his Red Mountain prospect today, and he's feeling mighty good." Then an introduction to Jim, who declares with emphasis, "Yes, sir, I am within just three feet of a million dollars." A year later, happening into camp again, our engineer encounters Jim, sitting dejectedly on a bench in front of the same dispensary. After a drink, in reply to an inquiry about the great ore body, Jim states with sad emphasis: "Partner, I'm a million feet from $3."—Engineering and Mining Journal.
